Welcome ..

Every few months we hold a contest in MIA studios to find a new talented actress for our movies .

Our contest winners always get their chance to become a movie star . They get the full treatment and training to be able to face the camera with much of self confidence , so they show a great performance in acting .

We saw Tukii Euminn in " The Chick " and Zara flower in " After the Last Victim " and they both were great .

Also we will see Mary Londinesi in my coming movie . That girl was very good in the test videos and did a great effort and I think she will be a great actress .

Now the 4th volume of the contest is running and I can see many talented contestants .

The problem is that the contest has stopped temporarily due to some problems with the judges , but I promise all the contestants to continue the contest as soon as I get the full results of the first round .

Here we come to the end ..

See you next month ...

Interview with the winners ..

Interview by : Sunlady

This month I am interviewing Mia director and creator and also owner of Mia Studios and Dina Smith Star of the award winning movie "After the Last Victim".

Welcome to you both and thank you very much for being here with me.

MIA how does it feel to have won the award for best movie for June?

Well , it feels great , the greatest feeling I've ever had since I started movie making. And that award is not for me only , it is for every one who worked in this movie , Dina , Geri , R'bell , Zara and even the crew .

And actually I waited for the announcement of the award since the movie release in June , but I think there were some problems with the Sims99 site which delayed the announcement .

There was a lot of hard work gone into that movie Which was your best and worst scenes to film and why?

I can tell that the car chase scene was the best and the worst scene in the same time. It was the best scene because it was full of action and thrill and had to be made in a perfect way . I tried my best to do it as I see it in my mind to make some thing new to sims movies . It took a lot of green screen work to be done . A lot of time . And that makes it the worst scene in the movie too . It exhausted me .

Dina you played Monica the star of the movie and did nearly all of your own stunts I heard. That must have been exhausting. Do you have a favorite scene in the movie?

You are right , I did all the stunts myself . And that was really hard . I had to do some training by an expert of stunts and I've been injured in my knees twice . But if you are asking about my favorite scene , well ... ( she looks at MIA and smiles ) the escaping scene . That part when I jumped from the prison wall into the water . MIA lade repeat that scene for 3 times . That was really hard , but as MIA said , he wanted the best .

How does your husband feel about you doing your own stunts? Isn't he just a little bit worried?

Actually he was much worried . He was calling me in the location every one hour to check on me . And some times he comes with me to the studio . And when I was injured in my knees he was so worried and he insisted that I resign . But after he calmed down , I persuaded him to keep working in the movie .

MIA of course "After the Last Victim" is not you only movie, we mustn't forget "The Last Victim" and "Run" also "The Chick" . I have heard that you are planning to remake one of these movies is that true?

Yes , we are preparing now for a remake of RUN . There was only one episode released of that movie , but now I will make it as a complete movie as I did in "After the Last Victim" but now most of the cast will be changed like Joe Young who changed his career completely and Geri Hoffman who resigned from the movie after her personal events . The main male role went to the talented actor Garry Elliot while we still looking for some one to do the female role .

Dina, What is it like working for MIA?

It is great , in fact I can't imagine working with any other director , MIA discovered me and presented me to the public in a sims 1 slide show story . That was six years ago . I grew up with him - I mean artistically - until I became this . And now I don't think that I can work with some one else because no one can understand me or direct me like him . He knows me very well . Knows my weak points and my strong points and he knows how to let me do my best .

Have you always wanted to be an actress?

That was my dream when I was a child , but couldn't have a chance . I worked as a waitress in a night club for a long time until I got my chance when a friend told me they are looking for an actress for MIA studios. I was 33 then but he chose me for that role in "Love of a Woman" and that was the start.

Dina when you are not on set what do you do in your spare time?

I spend most of my time reading , that's what I used to do since I was young , reading teaches me more skills and let me know more about different things and beside reading , I love music .

What about you MIA? What do you do in your spare time? Do you have any hobbies?

You consider making movies is my career but actually this is my favorite hobby , I really enjoy making movie and preparing for it , when I was young I used to write stories . And some of this stories I used it in my movies like "The Last Victim" which I wrote it in 1994 when I was in high school .

You and Geri have become best friends over the time you have worked together how do you feel about what has happened recently?

I'm really sorry for her , that was really bad . She must learn how to choose friends . Now all of us trying to help her to come over this and be herself again .

MIA your 4th star search is currently running. Your last 2 have found 2 very beautiful and talented actresses Zara Fowler and teenager Mary Londinesi. What are you hoping for with this contest?

I hope if I can find something different , something new . A new talent will improve the MIA studios' cast for some kind of roles which we find it hard to select the suitable actress for it like Mary Londinesi .

Will Mary be starring in your next movie?

Yes , she will have a small role , but good as a start for a promising talent like her.

And finally MIA What have we got to look forward to for the next few months and into 2008?

We are working hard on the remake of "RUN" , also there will be some other releases by other MIA studios' directors .

I am sorry to say our time is up but I would like to invite you both back, maybe after your next movie release MIA.

Thank you both once again for coming today .

Missing Sims

This week I am reviewing not a movie, but a promising new series called "Missing Sims" where each week the show features a new missing sim...

So far there are only two episodes,

"The Bella Goth Story" and "The Lilith Pleasant Story" created and hosted by MelPeanut.

It is in the same venue as "Unsolved Mysteries." A TV-Series that ran from 1987 - 2002.

Missing Sims is an intriguing show, all shot in a documentary style... Each mystery is reenacted and brought forth in a new light... MelPeanut adds that final edge of entertainment and provides interesting information on each case as she slowly Robert Stack adds that final edge of entertainment and thrill as he slowly talks about the mysteries. The show is entertaining, narrates about the mysteries.. It roams to missing people, past history, criminals, murders, UFO sightings, ghosts, and much more...

All in all the show is entertaining, but right now the show is of low picture quality... I wish the creator would go to a better quality by using Machinima.

The voice acting was okay, but all the male voices sounded very similar.

I give Missing Sims 3 out of 5 stars

WARLOKK .. THE GOD FATHER ..

People consider him the God father for all mesh creators in the sims 2 world . His various body meshes gave the reality to the game . Starting from the breasts and hips different sizes and ending with the specific body shapes like classic pinup girl , Rio girl , Renaissance girl and Fashion model .

We proudly could have this conversation with him

First of all .. people want to know you better

Well, I'm a 36-year-old hardcore PC gamer, been addicted to games since Wolfenstein3d came out. I have a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Art from a small college in PA, which got me into the Computer Graphics field in a game design startup with some friends of mine. That didn't work out, but the computer experience led to a career in the IT field, which I've been working in for about 13 years now, and also gave me the 3d graphics skills I'm using now, including introducing me to Poser. I've got long hair down to my a$$, and I'm still a total metal head since I was about 15. My favorite bands are Iron Maiden, Blind Guardian and Tesla, to name a very few. I also paint miniature figures occasionally, a hobby I got into from my Dungeons & Dragons days as a teenager (yes, I was and still am a D&D dork). Mostly I paint Citadel War hammer and War hammer 40k stuff. Some of my stuff can be seen at CoolMiniOrNot.com (under Warlokk), but I'm not nearly as good as most of those folks... one can try though.

How did you start working on sims 2 mesh creating ??

I first taught myself 3d meshing in the early 90's with the game design company I tried to start. We had 3d Studio 4.0 and Poser (1) at the time. I kept fiddling with various versions of Poser over the years, and when Sims 2 came out and Xenos and Zenman figured out how to make Poser work with the models, well, I knew I had to try my hand at it. People seemed to like the results, so I've been doing it ever since.

I currently use Milkshape and Poser 6 for all my mesh work, along with the Milkshape tools by WesH and Demon432 at MTS2.

Classic pinup Girl

Rio Girl

Booty Girl

Who inspires you with the different body sizes like pinup girl , Rio girl ..... etc. ??

I get my inspiration from a variety of sources, mostly from observation of the people around me. I work in the city, and just watching the women around me can give me ideas for body styles. I'm also an avid Playboy collector, and many shapes are inspired by various models they've had over the years, including Classic Pinup and Rio. Other ideas come from suggestions in my Requests forums, or from assorted artistic sources like fantasy and classical art (Power Girl and RenGal, respectively). So, pretty much all over, really... it's just a matter of observation and inspiration.

I can't really say I have a favorite, they are all my creations and I enjoy them all, for different reasons. One of my goals was always to create variety, so I try to make each shape dramatically different from the others. Classic Pinup is definitely the most popular of the newer shapes, and I really like how Rio came out, but I wouldn't say either is a favorite... I love all my girls...

How long does it take from you to create a new body shape ?? specially that you do it for the different clothes ..

Well, as I've been working on this project, I've come up with a lot of shortcuts and tricks that make things go faster. So a single mesh, from concept to in-game for a full-body nude for example, I can usually do in a few hours. Once I have the magnets built for Poser and the actual shape finalized, I make the full-body nude, divide it into top and bottom for the skin tone, and assemble all those files for the game. Then, I test... and my testers test. This can go on for an hour or a week, depending on whether we find any problems.

Once everything looks good on the nudes, I start working on clothing sets. Usually I try to do about 6-8 outfits per set, with the first having something in each category. Clothing items are easier than the nudes, since I just reshape the Maxis stuff, so they take about an hour or two for each outfit, usually.

So, I figure for an initial release of a new shape, maybe 5 hours for the nudes and skintone, and another 6-8 hours for the base clothing set. After that, I just put together assorted clothing sets based on whatever theme I have in mind for the shape. Those can vary widely, depending on how complicated I decide to get with them. Of course, those hours can be spread out over a single weekend, or a month, depending on what Real-Life demands of me...

What's your coming project ??

I'm currently working on the XHi-Res Mesh updates for the named Body shape series, which are also now compatible with Marvine's Dance Loop Tester animation. A few shapes are finished already, and more will be coming soon. After that, my next shape will be Toon Girl, inspired by Jessica Rabbit and other animated vixens.

Now people say that you made the game much better by the variation in body shapes .. they all check your creations in the different sites almost daily .. what do you think about that ?

I think it's very cool, and I do hear that a lot... folks saying they wouldn't be playing anymore if it weren't for my work, and all the fantastic recolor and modifications folks have made from it. I started off wanting to repay others for all the great stuff they had made for the game before me, to give back to the community for all the stuff freely given before. All the tools and knowledge that I use for my work is all freely available too, which is why it's so important to me that my stuff remain free for everyone to download and enjoy. Without the free tools like SimPE, Unimesh plugins, Mesh Tool, and all the many tutorials at MTS2, InSIM and other sites, none of this custom content would even be possible, and I feel locking it up behind a paid membership is just wrong. Donations should be given though, especially to those wonderful free sites that host all our toys... running a busy website isn't cheap, so folks should give back when they can.

Thank you for your time and we wish to see more of your creations soon ...

ASK JOE ...

Has romance got you down? Is your love bouquet getting a little droopy? Wanted a hot date, but the matchmaker stuck you with Pao? There's no need to fear, I'm here! I've got enough experience under my belt to cover whatever you can throw at me. Tips, tricks, hints? I'm your man.

Long time listener, first time caller

Q. Dear Joe,

Recently I met a man. He's a wonderful guy. I love him but we have a few issues that he seems blind to.

I'm a teen and he's an adult. That's not the problem, I have no parents to care about this anyway and I've moved in with him. The first problem is, I'm pregnant with his child and he doesn't care. At all. He pays less attention to me now he knows I'm knocked up. Should I get rid of it to gain his attention back?

Just after we met, he bought a beautiful house. It's seriously wonderful and I love living there. Only when I moved in, he didn't tell me it was designed for puppy farming, the whole downstairs is dogs. Horrible stinky things. And they are all he cares about, he hasn't slept in our bed for days. He's always out with his dogs. He sold all but the main breeding bitch the other day, and he's been crying ever since. It's pathetic really. Should I continue to put up with this neglect? should I move in my college lover?

Please help! I'm desperate here!

From,
Sick of freaking dogs.

A. Dear Sick of freaking dogs,

First, I want to apologize for my delay. I've been randomly crashing to the desktop and my ass is a bit bruised. And my cap reflects light funny, now. How do I fix this?

Oh, yeah... I answer YOUR questions.

The question started off so normal, then you threw a couple curve balls at me, so I'm going to tackle this bit by bit:

I'm a teen and he's an adult. That's not the problem

Okay. That was easy. Next question...

The first problem is, I'm pregnant with his child and he doesn't care. At all. He pays less attention to me now he knows I'm knocked up.

I'm guessing he's a Family Sim, then?

Should I get rid of it to gain his attention back?

No. Take a mallet to his nuts and give him a scalpel-free vasectomy. That should get his attention back AND you won't have to worry about this problem again!

Just after we met, he bought a beautiful house. It's seriously wonderful and I love living there. Only when I moved in, he didn't tell me it was designed for puppy farming.

This would be the part where I fell off my chair laughing. Anyway, as you were...

And they are all he cares about, he hasn't slept in our bed for days. He's always out with his dogs. He sold all but the main breeding bitch the other day, and he's been crying ever since. It's pathetic really.

Agreed.

Should I continue to put up with this neglect?

NO.

should I move in my college lover?

Frick yeah. And make sure daddio stays in the doghouse.

Joe

Can't Get Over It

Q. Hey, Byron Goth here...sorry to butt in, but I heard my name...

Joe, buddy, I truly appreciate your advice, you are the only guy I know who is more experienced than I am in the Romance business. But I should clarify, my LTW is actually to reach the top of the athletic career (I spend as much time in the gym as with the ladies. I'm not just a penis with feet, I also have great abs, pecs, biceps, quads...), I did the woohoo with 20 different Sims for kicks, and maintaining relationships hasn't really been in the forefront of my mind. Love 'em & leave 'em seems to be working great for me. Even without making an effort, I am actually still in love with every one of my former girlfriends, from Joy Fuchs to, uh, I forget her name right now, a not very attractive townie chick in a bowling shirt...Anyway, my main problem as far as past girlfriends goes is trying to avoid them. My fraternity brothers (pretty much any male from Pleasantview ends up in the Fraternity at Uni) have made a pledge that if I ever go after one their wives, especially the wives that used to be my girlfriends, they will get together to beat the crap out of me. I'm an athelete (did I mention how much I work out?), so I could take two or three of them, but all of them at once would be more than I could handle. So, no flirting with former girlfriends for me, no matter what it does to my relationship panel.

And hey, Cynthia, babe, long time no see! I hear you're engaged to one of the Burbs, the nerdy quiet one. He never did join the Fraternity, did he? Good for you! But you know if you ever get bored of the conversation there, you can always come by my house for something more stimulating. That is, when I get back from my trip to Barstow....

Byron Goth

A. Bag another 20 babes, and maybe I'll be impressed. But I'm not the one you need to prove your sexual prowess to. This town isn't big enough for the two of us. This is "Ask Joe", not "Ask Byron". Get your own damn column.

Joe

GERI AND TONY .. THE DRAMATIC END ..

No body ever thought that the hot romantic relationship between the famous actress Geri Hoffman and her former bodyguard Tony Gattuso could be ended this way .

It was a terrible news that Geri has been assaulted and found bleeding in her house on Friday, October 19th .

The maid who saved Geri's life by calling the police said that she found Geri unconscious on the floor and near the stairs while there was no body else at home .

Geri was taken to the hospital for recovery and she left after one week with a broken arm and a small injury in her forehead, but the big loss for Geri was losing her baby . Yes , she was pregnant in the 9th week and she lost her baby due to this assault .

In her statement to the police Geri said :

" the happiest thing I've ever had was that pregnancy , I was charmed by the idea of being a mother , so I decided to resign from the movie that I was going to do with MIA . I told Tony about my decision but he disagreed with me , he wanted me to abort the baby and continue with the movie , he wanted the money . I made up my mind and next morning I was going to call MIA to tell him , but Tony stopped me , we had a big fight . He punched me many times in my belly and then he pushed me to fall on the stairs , then the view went to black "

Geri Leaving the hospital with Megan

Geri left the hospital after one week and she feels better now physically , but inside her heart there is a big sorrow . Losing her baby and her love is not easy . Tony who was her body guard before a love story starts between them is still disappeared . And his disappearance proving Geri's tale , and after two weeks now I think that he will face a hard judgment which will lead him to prison for a long time .

VAL .. IN MIA'S COMING MOVIE ..

Gossip

Famous director and actress Val the owner of Cuppa Joe productions has signed a contract with MIA studios .

Val will take a major role in MIA studios coming movie which will be directed by MIA .

Val appeared in more than 10 movies including some hot projects and all that were directed by herself , but she said that working with MIA will be a special experiment for her, and she hopes to do a great performance in this project .

Val also said to our source that the role she will play is not that role which was going to play and resigned , but it is the other feminine role in the movie .

Val also said that she accepted this role after an offer from MIA and she could not say No . Now all we can do is to wait for that movie which collected some big names so far .

A ROMANTIC DINNER ..

Since they appeared together in Geri Hoffman's birthday party and their photos were published in press , they remained appearing together every where they go .

Last week they also spotted together , the scenarist R'bell and the hot model Erica Armando were seen in the " Green Meal " restaurant in Dream Hills.. The cute couple were having a very romantic dinner in candles light and our camera spotted a very romantic emotions between them . Our source also said the R'bell and Erica moved in a new house together two weeks ago and it seems that they are preparing for something ...

TUKKI EUMINN ON THE SCREEN AGAIN

Gossip

Pretty brunette actress Tukii Euminn the winner of the first Star Search contest is very happy these days .

The reason of Tukii's happiness is that the new MIA studios' director Maria1307 chooses for the main role of her coming movie . This came after a long idle time since Tukii appeared in her first - and only - role with MIA in " The Chick " which was a very short role in fact .

After that Tukii was idle for about one year without any offers which was frustrating for Tukii .

Tukii thought that a new look might be effective . So she changed her hair color , and the results was amazing . We have to say that Tukii became more beautiful and stunning . And the great result for the new look is getting that role with Maria .

Congratulations Tukii ...

ON HOLIDAY WITH SUNLADY

After digging around a bit in the soil I found an ancient looking map of a place called Pagoda in the Shadows so I decided to follow the directions to see what it was.

We talked for a while and then he must have decided that I was a decent person as he decided to tell me an ancient legend Which was fascinating. Something tells me it is of some great importance I know legend and was told to use it wisely.
that was the end of my first day so i went back to the villa for some well deserved rest.

Hiya folks it is me again just back from a trip to Takemuzi Village where I stayed at their Takemuzi Village Resort. It is a lovely place and we each have a villa to stay in, my room cost me 775 simolians a night which isn't too bad.

When I arrived I met a wise old man who seemed to be in some kind of a trance After a few minutes he came out of his trance and I greeted him as I thought was right

I was up bright and early the next morning and decided to take a look around the resort and what it had to offer. First stop was the pool side where I lounged around for a while.

After an hour or so of pure rest I decided to head for a massage

I purchased a Swedish Massage for around 100 simoleans.

I bumped into Mark Trimble and his son (I played Mahjong with Mark yesterday) and we all had tea together which was really nice. I noticed a Zen garden here as well. Although I shouldn't be surprised as it is called The Zen Gardens after all so I decided to

After being fully pampered and feeling a million simoleans I changed into a kimono I had bought from a local store and off I went again. Everywhere is easy to walk to and I am very close to everything.

Next stop The Immortal Zen Gardens.

Now you can't visit Takemuzi without trying their tea drinking ceremony groom it, apparently after it has been groomed and you meditate around it strange things happen although I wasn't going to chance it this time around. but I did some Tai Chi instead

I am defiantly coming back again as I have missed so much but my time here is up. I am giving Takemuzi Village a big thumbs up.
